Anton Martin Syversen was born in Rakkestad, Østfold, Norway on 14 Oct 1921. The farm where he was born was called Panteholtet, which was part of a larger farm known as Tøften: today this farm is called Granvold.

He married Laura Larsdatter on 24 Mar 1877 in Eidsvoll, Akershus County, Norway, six days before the birth of their first child. They moved to Rakkestad in 1878 and had four more children. Laura died April 1st 1891 in Rakkestad from pneumonia.

Anton Martin later got married to Maren Johanne Christensdatter (b. 1860), and they had two children: Christen, b. Mars 18th 1898 in Rakkestad, he died March 30th 1898, and Alma Laura, b. August 4th 1899 in Rakkestad.

Anton Martin died in Rakkestad on 14 Oct 1921. Here is a translation of his Obituary:

Note

It appears that Anton was briefly employed from 18 March 1910 through 18 October 1910 when he was dismissed.

He was apparently rehired 26 March 1916 and worked through 30 April 1919 (and perhaps earlier... there is a record indicating he took some sort of exam on 25 January 1915).

His records also contain an unsigned deferment letter from 1918 that appears to have exempted him from service during the first World War.

Also, his employment application incorrectly states that he was born in 1885 (he was actually born in 1886).

Description

Laura Larsdatter was born in Eidsvold Verk, Akershus, Norway on 14 October 1844. The Eidsvoll church records were destroyed by a fire in the Eidsvold church rectory in 1877, so records documenting her birth do not appear to exist. After extensive research I now believe that her parents were Lars Abrahamsen Rødshaugen and Anne Margrete Larsdatter.

Please refer to my website for a complete analysis of what information I considered in arriving at this conclusion:

Benefits of Using Family Search Family Tree

- Portions of the family had already been entered
 - Many branches I was unaware of
- I now get additional hints/suggestions from Family Search
- I can share what I know with other researchers
 - They can add information too!
- Information about my family will be around a lot longer than I will
